

J. STEPHEN SHEPPARD PARTNER
ssheppard@cdas.com

ADMITTED

NEW YORK
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Stephen Sheppard is a leading transactional attorney with forty-five years of experience in the publishing, digital, motion picture, television and other entertainment industries. His clients include entertainment and publishing executives, award-winning film directors, network news and documentary producers and production companies, publishers, and writers. He represents a cable television network in connection with various aspects of its business, and is counsel to a major entertainment industry foundation in connection with productions of multi-media fundraising events. His practice includes substantial literary estates, companies engaged in multi-platform and digital/'through-media' production and publishing ventures.

BAR ADMISSIONS

New York (1969), District of Columbia (1966)

EDUCATION

London School of Economics

Cornell University, Ithaca, NY, B.A.

Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, D.C., J.D.

ASSOCIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

New York State Bar Association, Committee on Theatre and Performing Arts, Past Chair